

A CORNER ON DOLLARS!

If You can get One

Of those bargains in fine Dress Goods, Cloaks, Misses Wraps, Boots, Shoes, Etc., you will have the same advantage as the man who "corners the market."

And You can do so

By being prompt. Our entire line go regardless of cost, to make room for our spring purchase. These are special "after the Holidays" runs

At Fair Bros. & Co's

And they mean business. A line of Cloaks and Misses Wraps at your own price. Boots worth $3 go at $1.75 and $2. Blankets and Comforts at a big reduction.

You will Find it

Just as represented. In fact, all heavy winter wear must move at some price, to avoid carrying over a large stock. The goods are, in practical ways,

HENRY NALL.

The bottom has dropped out of prices on Overcoats, Shoes and all winter Goods. Call to see Carson & Co. and be convinced.

Remember Schumpke, the Shoe Dealer, when you come to town to buy your Footwear. He carries a good line and will treat you right.

Henry Nall, the hunting proprietor of the Feed Store at the old Bean stand, solicits your patronage and guarantees satisfaction.

Mr. R. C. Jarnagin closed a very successful school at Shultztown school-house, near Prentiss, Friday, and entered Hartford College Monday.

John Chien, Elvin Stevens and Horace Taylor, of near Beaver Dam, Ky., passed through town yesterday en route to Owensboro with three loads of tobacco.

Mr. Ed Wallace, of Fordville, was married to Miss Maggie Waterford, of near Bell's Run, yesterday, at the residence of the bride's father, C. F. Westfield.

W. B. Crabtree has purchased the J. Schumpke farm, five miles east of town, and has rebuilt and improved the farm generally. He moved on to it last week.

For anything usually kept in a first-class general or fancy grocery store, go to S. O. P. Hall and be supplied with the best on the market at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

Rev. D. J. K. Madsen, who moved to Beaver Dam last September, has moved again to his farm near West Prentiss. His correspondents will address him in the future at Rockport, Ky.

Our efficient and obliging sheriff, Mr. J. P. Stevens, announces this week as a candidate for re-election. Mr. Stevens is a faithful officer and has been nominated without opposition. No better man for the place can be found.

For Flour, Meal, Shipstout, Baled Hay, Corn, and, in short, anything usually kept in a supply and general feed store, call on Henry Nall, at the old Bean stand, and be supplied with the best market affords at prices to suit the times.

Henry Williams, colored, who is charged with breaking into the store of Taylor & Co., and was arrested at Rockport, has been captured at Hopkinsville. Mr. H. D. Hunt secured a writ and left Monday last to go to the home of going to press he had not returned.

The protracted meeting which has been in progress at the Methodist Church at Centertown for the last ten days, is still growing in interest and much good is being done. Rev. Harrison, the pastor, has been assisted by Revs. E. B. Pate, J. R. McFay and T. J. Morton.

The numerous friends of that stalwart Democrat from Sulphur Springs, Isiah Lee, will be glad to see his announcement in this week's Herald as a candidate for Jailor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Lee is a factor and tireless worker and a good citizen, who would make a good officer.

Mr. David Gentry, one of our tinners, first-class, waterproofed Democrats from County president, announces as a candidate for Jailor. Mr. Gentry is well qualified for the place and would make a good officer.

Some of a long line of good Democrats who never shirked a party duty nor shirked for an office.

Mr. R. B. Stewart, a popular and sterling young farmer and Democrat, announces in this week's Herald as a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Stewart was deputy assessor under C. W. Parrot for six years and is eminently fitted for the place to which he aspires.

The following are new students in Hartford College: Miss Bertha Lee Drake, South Carrollton; L. B. Mills, C. L. Armad, Sulphur Springs; H. L. White, Rovers; Amos Bridges, Mrs. Ella Herring, Hartford; Ponce Herring, White Plains; Ossa Shultz, Beaver Dam; Harlan Craig, Beaver; R. M. Morton, Centertown; J. P. Smith, Owensboro; and R. C. Jarnagin, Prentiss.

Mr. Thomas Bell, of Buford, is a candidate for Assessor of Ohio county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. See his announcement elsewhere. Mr. Bell is a young gentleman of most exemplary habits and is well equipped for the duties incumbent upon a county Assessor. He is an efficient and earnest working Democrat and we feel sure he would make a good officer.

Mr. E. T. Williams, of Hartford, is a new starter in the Democratic race for County Jailor. Mr. Williams has been years a member of the firm of Williams Bros. and in his business career, by his fair and courteous treatment, has won the confidence of the people. He will rally around his standard. Mr. Williams' business experience, coupled with his strong and well informed intellect, will fit him for the county's chief magistracy.

Mr. J. B. Wilson, our genial and efficient County Surveyor, has been made a Notary Public, his nomination by Governor Brown having arrived yesterday. He is now clothed with authority to administer oaths, take acknowledgments and do all other things that both become a Notary Public and "who does less is none." It will be a pleasure to the public to see him at the bar and he will be glad to be so.

Our ally and esteemed young friend, John D. Martin, of Beaver Dam, has announced as a candidate for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party. Mr. Martin is well known and popular over the county, and his friends will hail with delight this opportunity to honor him. He is sober, earnest and energetic; while his business life has been such as will not only command him but fit him for almost any position to which he may aspire.

Col. S. R. Dent, of the well known United States Life Insurance Company, is in Hartford and has been here for some days. He has written more life insurance than any other agent who ever tried to work this territory. First of his Company is known as the first and foremost of the Companies doing business in Kentucky and again, their policies offer advantages not found in other Companies. Those wanting life insurance would do well to see him.

Hartford College treated its friends to some of the most delightful entertainments last week that Hartford has enjoyed for a long time. Wednesday night was Miss Nall's class in music, Thursday night Prof. Frost, of Louisville, a musician of high rank. Friday night Prof. Foster's class in Literature. The closeness of each entertainment was much enhanced by the sweet singing of Misses Sallie Cate, Julia Pendleton and Mrs. Anna Stirling, who always captivate their hearers.

Mr. D. F. Tracy will contend with Judge John P. Morton for the Republican nomination for County Judge, as appears from his announcement in our column of THE HERALD. Mr. Tracy is known to perhaps every Republican in the community. He has for years done business here, having for a long time been an accomplished and successful wagon-maker and since a merchant. He has given a sober life to the study of business and of politics and knows much of both. He has many friends over the county who will welcome his announcement and who will give him a hearty and strong support.

Elijah Thomas Williams. Having just learned that the above named gentleman has become a candidate for County Judge on the Democratic ticket, will you be so kind as to grant me some of the valuable columns of THE HERALD to express some of my convictions and feelings, without the least disposition to disparage in the remotest degree, either one of the good Democrats who does may stand as candidates for the same office.

Being an old and intimate acquaintance of the Williams' family, and having a reverential recollection of its venerable head, namely: Jeremiah Williams, and being familiar with all the children of the family all the days of their life, I feel that I cannot amount to a duty that I should express my opinion of the fitness of Mr. Williams to fill the office to which he aspires.

Born, reared and educated in Ohio county, having been bred to the vocation of labor as a farmer, he first entered active public life as a school teacher and taught with success at Hartford, South Carrollton, Point Pleasant, Goshen, and other places, finally locating in Hartford and adopting such a profession as he kept him constantly in contact with the interests of the best and most intelligent class of laboring citizens for more than a decade. It is to say and mind a knowledge of the real necessities and wants of the people whom he aspires to serve. A man of fine intelligence, unswerving integrity and sterling honesty, he would make a most efficient and honest constancy, such as the people of Ohio county are.

He is the elder brother of Hon. Jesse S. Williams, who has efficiently served in two terms of the Kentucky Legislature, having defeated the sought of the Republicanism, Col. Q. C. Shanks, in his first contest and Hon. Herschel B. Taylor in his second race, than whom there is not a more honorable or more respected citizen in the county. Both these canvasses were conducted upon such high terms of tone and gentlemanly principles as to demand and receive the highest respect of both his opponents and the public generally. Having his whole life been identified with the interests and pursuits of the people, we can scarcely doubt his qualifications to give him the nomination that he seeks for, on Saturday, March 3, 1894. And now with good will toward all, and malice toward none, we do most sincerely hope that the Democrats of Ohio county may be like minded.

Respectfully, Dix.

Twelve or fifteen boards. Large and well ventilated rooms. The best of accommodations at most reasonable rates. For further particulars call on or address C. Austin & Co., Hartford, Ky.

NOTICE!

On Saturday, January 20th, 1894, at 2 o'clock, p. m., I will offer for sale to the highest bidder on a credit of twelve months, six head Mules, also four-year-old Mules, one Farming Utensils, one Wagon, one Moving Machine and a Hay Rack. Having disposed of my farm, this property will be sold without reserve.

I. P. BARNARD, Beaver Dam.

THE HERALD and Fetter's Southern Magazine both one year for $2.50.

The best line of Footwear is at Schumpke's. Call and see him.

PERSONAL.

J. P. Vetter, of Taylor Mines, called to see us yesterday.

John Buckley and Emma Funk called to see us Monday.

Wm. Lewis and wife, of Rovers, visited friends in Hartford.

Mrs. Edwin Tabb and Wayne Joplin, of Rovers, are in town.

Miss Jane Hart, of Ohio, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Amanda Griffin, at Calhoun.

Mrs. Lucy A. King and son, W. L. of Paradise, called to see us yesterday.

Mrs. Ada McDaniel, of Sulphur Springs, was the guest of Mr. Foster Matthews yesterday.

Mr. Wm. Reader and wife, of Prentiss, Tenn., are visiting relatives in Hartford and Holfu.

A Card.

Since I announced myself as a candidate for Jailor of Ohio county, I have been called to my bed from a serious illness, from which I am not yet fully recovered, but I hope to be out in a few days and enter the field and meet my old friends and meet new ones.

Meanwhile, I trust the Democrats of the county will remember me kindly in my affliction and show me generosity with me as they have in the past, and I assure you that your efforts in my behalf will be heartily appreciated.

Thanking the good people of Ohio for the honors bestowed on me in the past and hoping to be well and with you soon, I remain your friend,

E. L. SULLINGER, Hartford, Ky.

THOMAS H. HINES DIED.

It is with sadness that we say, that one who has been a valued citizen of our old county, Thomas H. Hines, who died January 10, 1894, aged 60 years. He was a loving husband, father and brother. He was afflicted for several months and all was done for that could be done, but alas! the time had come for him to depart from us, and thank God, he was ready to go. He leaves a wife and several children and a host of friends to mourn his loss. Tom made himself pleasant to everybody and lived a true Christian until the end. He was a member of the Methodist Church of Hartford's Chapel. His funeral was preached at the Chapel by Rev. Ford. Let all prepare to meet their Lord in Heaven, by the way of holiness.

T. H. F. ANTON.

To the Voters of Ohio County.

I have decided to make the race for County Judge, and having been intimately identified with you in the past, I feel that I am qualified to represent you in this office. I have known you by a large number of years, and I respectfully submit my claims for a kind consideration and relying on your vote for my aid and influence.

E. T. WILLIAMS, Jan. 16, 1894, Hartford, Ky.

A Card.

Owing to the serious illness of my wife, I have been and still am unable to leave home and see my friends, but I hope my friends will not let my countrymen, I trust, to neglect me. For Mr. J. P. Foster, and assure you that your efforts in my behalf will be appreciated by your friend,

H. F. PATTS.

OF HIS TRICKS.

"I thought you said you were going to bring a new dinner to dinner with you," said Mrs. Gallagher.

"He doesn't come, Samantha," replied Mr. Gallagher as he sat down with great satisfaction to the first dinner of the year.

"He doesn't come, Samantha," replied Mr. Gallagher as he sat down with great satisfaction to the first dinner of the year.

Removes to Loft.

Mrs. Faggie—Have you secured a job for your second floor yet, Mr. Goslin?

Goslin (hesitating)—I haven't been looking for a job, madam.

Mrs. Faggie—Why, I'm certain my second floor has room to let in your upper story—Wait!

Saw-Loy Timber for Sale.

College Notes.

The second session of this noted institution of learning opened Monday. With this session ends the fourth year of Hartford College and Business Institute. It is believed now that the students who attended the last session, many more new pupils have come and the school is prospering. The teachers are thoroughly pleased with the conditions and that the present session will be the most successful in the history of the college.

It has been some time since the young and build up the town than anything else here. They should congratulate themselves that they have such a noble set of young men in their midst. There are at present no "loafers" attending school. Let everybody work that night and day and make all their preparations for the advancement of the school interests.

The lecture delivered last week by Prof. Shultz on "The Masses of the People Made the Nation's Character" was good and to the point. He agreed that there were many great women and men unknown outside of the community in which they live, and these give character to the nation.

Friday morning Dr. Alexander made a lecture on young men to go upward. He said it was the ambition of young men to put up a few oyster cans in the front of a store house and run a blind tiger in the cellar in their rear. His great idea was for young men to make use of the moral, intellectual and physical powers which God has given them to the highest advantage.

Miss Coleman and Combs, in charge of the Preparatory Department of the College, are working very hard to discharge their duty. The pupils all did well. They are always glad to have the patrons of the school visit them.

Miss Mary Ann, a former pupil of the school, was a welcome visitor last week. Prof. R. Foster, principal of the school at Massenville, addressed the Adolphus Society Saturday night in a usual happy manner.

R. Holbrook, city, Mrs. Judge Berry, of near Rovers, and Mr. and Mrs. Anstine, of Beaver Dam, attended X Monday.

Rev. Willis Smith, of Owensboro, attended X Tuesday morning. He brought his son here to attend College.

Dividend Notice.

The Bank of Hartford has declared a semi-annual dividend of four dollars per share, payable on demand. Considering the hard times and the late financial depression, this is a splendid record. Eight per cent. per annum on your money is a big thing.

S. K. Cox, President.

Years of Suffering Ended

"I broke down in health, lost my appetite, had bad nerves and suffered from nervous prostration. I read of Hood's Sarsaparilla and tried it. In a few days my nerves became quieted and I was able to eat and sleep. I am now in better health than for years." Mrs. Emma Hues, Rovers, Ky.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures all diseases of the blood, skin, and nerves. It is a powerful purifier and a blood tonic. It is sold by all druggists and by the proprietors, J. C. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.
